

"The mission of our university system is to provide for educational opportunities that enable our state to have a competitive workforce, to actively discover new knowledge that can address many of our challenges, and to impact